CHANGES AHEAD

Change can be challenging. It can also force us to grow in new ways. Many changes are ahead for the summer months. A candidate is preaching for the call here on July 9th, and I will be leaving you in late July. If all goes well on 7/9, the pastor elect will join you in early September.

For me, saying goodbye is one of the hardest parts of being an interim. I've grown to care for you as individuals and my heart has become intertwined in the workings of this congregation. It is hard to let go and move on. Even knowing at the beginning that this time would come doesn't take the sting away. But knowing someone good is coming to work with you does!

I know you will welcome your new pastor with the same excitement and joy with which you welcomed me. I trust you will take her and her wife into your hearts as so many of you have done with me. I believe that your future is bright with possibilities and dreams.

In my years as an interim pastor I have discovered that I never truly leave a church I've loved. You will remain in my heart for many years to come. I'll look forward to hearing what you are doing in the years to come. I am so grateful to have been a part of this energizing congregation! Thank you for your care and support – and especially for your love for the church in this place

-Pastor Susan

Summer Music Notes

This summer, as every summer, we'll feature talented musicians from our church in services every Sunday. In the coming weeks we'll hear cellist Rachel Daniel for the last time (before her family's move to Wisconsin) on this Sunday, July 2; our whole choir on July 9, when the Rev. J. C. Cadwallader, our PNC's nominee for pastor, will be with us; Eugene Smith, for the last time before his and Margaret's move to Prince Edward Island, Canada; and Debbie Tenney's recorder quartet on August 6. We'll also hear Bruce Peabody and Beth Aura Miller, and other choir members later in the summer.

A wonderful new addition to our summer services is the August Förster grand piano that Debbie Tenney gave to the church last September. If you've heard it, you know how much richer a sound it has than the upright that we've had for many years!

-Patrick McCreless, Music Director

IRIS Craft Fair on Saturday July 29th

The church is hosting a craft fair for the IRIS women's sewing group on Saturday, July 29 from 12-4 pm in our Owens Community Building. Handmade crafts made by refugee women from all over the world will be for sale. There will also be homemade drinks and snacks from these countries. This event is a way we as a church community can support refugees in New Haven, especially women. Please plan to come and bring your friends!

Columbus House Volunteers Needed

First Presbyterian Church volunteers to cook dinner at the Columbus House homeless shelter the first Saturday of each month, and we're looking for people to sign up for the summer and early fall months. A sign-up sheet is in the Miller Gathering Hall, or you can email the church office to offer your name(s) for a first Saturday. Please consider giving up a few hours to serve a simple meal to the guests. Hamburgers and hot dogs are very popular, and with a salad and some dessert or fruit you have dinner. The clients at Columbus House are always very grateful. Any questions, please contact Pat Wales (203-645-9747 or patwales@att.net).

Volunteers Needed on Tuesday afternoons to Deliver to Food Pantry

Would you like to help the hungry by visiting a local farm? Are you free for an hour on one Tuesday afternoon this summer? We need drivers to pick up food at Massaro Farm in Woodbridge and bring it to the Christian Community Action emergency food pantry in New Haven between 2:30 and 5pm each Tuesday over the summer. It's a simple and easy task and delivers fresh food to the hungry in our community. Driving directions and a sign up sheet are on the table in the Owens Building. Many dates are available!

Christian Community Action's Emergency Food Pantry

Living may seem easier in the summer but that doesn't happen for low income families. Here are some facts about the sad situation and how you can help out.

- Contrary to what many people may think, the highest demand for food is in the summer.
- A family must provide more than 100 extra meals during summer vacation for each child who is not in school and does not have access to school meals — a difficult situation for most low-income families to face.
- Nearly half of the low-income households in Connecticut do not qualify for federal assistance because their earnings are too high for the income requirements. They turn to food pantries and soup kitchens for help.
- In Connecticut, 437,530 people are hungry. One in six children — 127,400 kids — don't always know where their next meal is coming from.
- Many people think about hunger around the holidays, but hunger is a year-round problem. For this reason, food donations tend to be lower in the summer months

Please continue to contribute non-perishable foods as much as possible to our green wheelbarrow to reduce the hunger for those families who depend on CCA. Thanks.

CE Highlights from June

Many thanks to our youth and adults for the new banner which reads, "You are welcome here," and to Lynn Autry for designing and leading the project.

Ten youth and children led us in worship on June 11th for Trinity Sunday. To honor our creative God and bring new life to our prayers and readings, Liza sang a solo anthem of "Holy, Holy, Holy" and Lauriann, pictured here, painted on canvas throughout the service. Her piece is inspired by the first Creation story of Genesis.

We had a great time at our End-of-the-Year celebration on Pentecost! We enjoyed a relay race, tabletop games, music, and a photo booth. See you again at Sunday school in September!

A Message from Naomi, Nursery Caregiver

As you may know, July 16th will be my last day at the nursery. I will have been working for First Presbyterian for almost 8 years by then. On August 4th I'll be leaving my full time job, and I'll be getting married on Sunday, August 6 to my fiancé, Firdaus Mohd-Aliff. Some members of the church might remember him, as when he was in the Air Force and living in California (from about 4-6 years ago), former co-pastors Bill and Maria let him help out in the nursery when he was on leave and visiting. Soon after we get married, Firdaus and I will be moving to Pennsylvania where I will be entering a PsyD program at Widener University.

I am going to miss being here so much. I'm so grateful for this job and everything this opportunity has given me.

Teachers' Retreat

Whether you're new to teaching or a seasoned professor, you are welcome to our Teachers' Retreat on Saturday, August 26th from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Owens Community Building. Come for prayer and preparation for the year; stay for the camaraderie among educators in our various contexts.

Together we'll explore the topic of educational ministries in and beyond the church, exchange strategies for planning and facilitating lessons, and derive insight from case studies based on true events. Our goals will be building a theological foundation for our respective educational ministries and encouraging one another in this craft.

Boundary Training for Parents & Volunteers

Not your average talk on harassment prevention!

Each day we have more opportunities than we may ever realize to navigate healthy boundaries. This workshop aims to bolster typical boundary training classes by expanding the conversation to encompass more of the situations we face on a day-to-day basis, especially in our roles as teachers, caregivers, and volunteers.

- Every time we invite a student to speak aloud in class or in front of the congregation, it is an example of navigating boundaries.
- Children deciding whether or not to play together is an example of navigating boundaries.
- Whether or how a supervisor can contact us when we're off-duty from a job or volunteer position is an example of navigating a boundary.

Power dynamics, social expectations, lack of communication skills or perceptiveness, and needs for survival or appreciation can affect the outcomes of any of the above. When such influences go unchecked, even innocent and well-intentioned acts may hinder the thriving of an individual and a community.

Parents and volunteers will learn or review how to recognize signs of neglect and physical, sexual, and emotional abuse. We'll also consider practical ways to maintain healthy caring relationships, use authority wisely and ethically, and live into a framework of inherent human dignity.

Join us in the Community Building at 10:45 a.m. (after worship) on Sunday, August 27th. Volunteers who took the Boundary Training Workshop last year need not take it again, or may opt to do so for a review.

Play & Pray Kids' Retreat 2017

Vacation Bible School Lite for All Ages, Infant - Youth

Saturday, July 8, 2017
12 - 4 p.m.

Free & Open to the Community
Limited Spaces Available

Reserve your place by email to firstpresbyterianchurch@gmail.com

12 - 3:30 Multi-Age Activities & Lunch
3:30 - 4 Kids' Meet & Greet with Pastor J.C.

How will we gather so many ages in one place?

Professional nursery caregivers will serve as the primary chaperones for our infants and toddlers to meet their basic needs and ensure their safety, but the event will be specifically designed for everyone of every age and ability level to participate in their own ways. Let us know what accommodations would best make this event accessible to your child.

What about food?

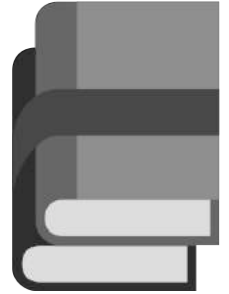

We will serve a variety of healthy foods for lunch – fruit, veggies, cheese and crackers, sandwich wedges – but please provide your preferred food for any baby who cannot yet eat these options. You are also welcome to pack a lunch or snack if you're concerned about your child finding something they will eat.

Please inform us well in advance of any dietary restrictions and food or exposure allergies so we can provide a welcoming environment for all participants.

Queer, There and Everywhere, 23 People Who Changed The World

My friend, and Presbyterian Peace Fellowship colleague, Sarah Prager has written a wonderful LGBTQ history book. World history has been made by countless lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer individuals—and you've never heard of many of them. From the publisher, HarperCollins "Sarah Prager delves deep into the lives of 23 people who fought, created, and loved on their own terms. From high-profile figures like Abraham Lincoln and Eleanor Roosevelt to the trailblazing gender-ambiguous Queen of Sweden and a bisexual blues singer who didn't make it into your history books, these astonishing true stories uncover a rich queer heritage that encompasses every culture, in every era."

Two copies of the book have been purchased for the Church and are on the corner table in the Gathering Hall.
